Re: United States v. Lawrence Feehan, 07 Cr. 529 (SCR)

Dear Judges:

This letter is submitted on behalf of defendant Lawrence Feehan, in connection with the above-mentioned action. On July 25, 2007, Mr. Feehan pleaded guilty before Magistrate Judge Yanthis to one misdemeanor count of designing and conducting a response action with respect to friable asbestos-containing material in a public or commercial building without having lawfully and properly obtained accreditation required for such work, in violation of 15 U.S.C. §§ 2646(a)(3), 2614(1), and 2615(b). During the July 25th calendar, we were asked whether Mr. Feehan would consent to appear before Magistrate Judge Yanthis for all purposes, including sentencing. We informed the Court's clerk that we needed to discuss that more fully with Mr. Feehan, but requested that in the interim, his sentencing be scheduled before Judge Robinson. Accordingly, Mr. Feehan was scheduled to be sentenced by Judge Robinson on November 1, 2007.

We have now had a full opportunity to discuss with Mr. Feehan the option of proceeding before Magistrate Judge Yanthis for all purposes, including sentencing, and Mr. Feehan has decided to so consent. We thus respectfully request that Mr. Feehan be scheduled for sentencing before Judge Yanthis on or after November 1, 2007, and that Mr. Feehan's sentencing be removed from Judge Robinson's calendar.

If the Court requires any materials to effectuate this change, we would be happy to provide them. Moreover, at the time of sentencing, or in advance if necessary, Mr. Feehan will execute any necessary documentation confirming his consent.

Application denied. Opting to consent to Magistrate Judge jurisdiction for guilty plea and sentencing should be done at the time of entry of the guilty plea.
So ordered: George A. Yanthis, USMD, 9/6/07
